JOSEPH L. RHINOKE, of Covington, was nominated for Congress by the 6th district democratic convention at Newport, having received 80 votes on the first ballot, and E. C. Smith, his opponent, receiving 33 votes. A convention consisting of about 40 delegates from Grant, Kenton and Campbell counties nominated Judge John T. Hodge. The State central committee will decide between the two. Mr. Rhinoke's mother formerly lived in the West End of this county.

R. C. KINKEAD, of Louisville, is working Indiana republicans for money to fight the sentences of Caleb Powers and James Howard. Fugitives Taylor and Finley and Gov. Durbin will no doubt donate to the fund but Mr. Kinkead will find it hard work to get other republicans to throw their hard-earned cash into such a sink hole.

THE coming convention of the republicans of Kentucky will witness a sharp struggle between former Gov. W. O. Bradley and John W. Yerkes. The points at issue will be the organizing of the convention and the seating of the Ernst or anti-Ernst delegation from the Sixth district.

THE New York Sun, which, by the way is a republican paper, says the premature adjournment of Congress is "abdication, surrender and self-effacement for the benefit of a single person, in his capacity of citizen-candidate, not of president."

IT is 104 years this week since the national capital was removed from Philadelphia and the Quaker City hasn't recovered from it yet.

POLITICAL.

John W. Douglass, of Owenton, has announced for Congress.

J. Frank Hanly was nominated for governor by the Indiana republican State convention.

President Roosevelt nominated Justice Peter C. Pritchard, of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, to be United States circuit judge of the Fourth circuit.

Indiana republicans elected Senators Fairbanks and Beveridge, Gov. Durbin and State Chairman Goodrich as the delegates from the State-at-large to the national convention.

The Senate in executive session failed to confirm the nomination of Wm. D. Crum, colored, to be collector at Charleston, S. C., and Senator Gallinger withdrew the appointment.

Maj. John Byrne, who was president of the Sound Money League in 1896, says that the only conditions under which Mr. Cookran agreed to speak were that he was to receive no pay and foot his own bills.

The Sixth district republican convention at Covington nominated Leslie T. Applegate for Congress and endorsed John W. Yerkes for national committeeman and Richard P. Ernst for State Central committeeman.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Dr. R. H. Crossfield, recently called to the pastorate of the Broadway Christian church, Louisville, was released by the church board at a called meeting in order to allow him to remain in Owensboro.

At a union meeting lasting till midnight, the people of Oak Park, a Chicago suburb, which had just been shaken by a religious revival, subscribed $25,000 to wipe out the debt on their Y. M. C. A. building.

A very successful revival has been in progress at the M. E. Church, South, for the past three weeks, conducted by the pastor assisted by Rev. Jones, of London. Large crowds have been in attendance nightly.—Middlesboro News

Without conscience or religious scruples an unknown man shot to pieces the donation box at St. Paul's Catholic church, Lexington, and appropriated the contents which represented the contributions of worshippers.

Rev. Dr. Powell says that hell is a condition, the Rev. Dr. Hamilton says that hell is a place, and the Rev. Dr. Ramsey says that hell is an ugly phantom. So you pay your money and take your choice of the preachers' pronouncements, but after a while you may conclude that you are the phantom in an unpleasant condition in an awful place.—Harrrodsburg Democrat.

Rev. R. L. Bussabarger, who graduated from the Bible college last year, but is now attending the art college, has received a call to the pastorate of the Christian church at Ballard, Wash. Ballard has 10,000 population and is a suburb of Seattle. Mr. Bussabarger is captain of the baseball team and a most popular student. He is now considering the call, but the fact that he wishes to complete his studies and has charge of several congregations will probably prevent his acceptance.—Lexington Democrat. Mr. Bussabarger has frequently preached to this county.

Crab Orchard.

Rev. J. B. Jones will hold his regular services at the Baptist church Sunday.

Miss Hettie Harris will be pleased to receive subscriptions from her friends for their summer reading periodicals and fashion magazines.

Chas Frieble, of Lancaster, representing the Logan Dry Goods store, was here last week. D. B. Edmlston, of Louisville, made a short business visit to relatives here recently.

Miss Pauline Hardin has been quite sick for the past week with pneumonia. Wade Perkins' friends are pleased to see him looking so well since his return from Mexico. Ike Herrin, the clever jester, was shaking hands with friends here Tuesday. Miss Ila Holdam is very much better. A tiny baby daughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. McClure. Dr. F. M. Clinkscale will arrive in Crab Orchard shortly for a visit of a month. Cards sent to his friends here make that announcement. He will be at the Gover Hotel and is considered a fine dentist. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Gooch are rejoicing over their first born, a pretty baby daughter. Mr. John Brooks, of Atlanta, Ga., is with the homefolks. Mrs. Jane Dickinson, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, is confined to her bed again with illness.

Cheer Up.

Don't you be discouraged
'Cause de clouds is black;
Sunshine is a-waitin'
Foh to travel back.
I's seen rain a-plenty;
Thought 't would never quit
Thunderin' an' lightnin'—
But I
ain' drownded yit.

When de snowstorm's threatenin',
Don't you be afraid;
Spring will come as usual,
'Smilin', undismayed;
When de rose is bloomin',
You won't mind it a bit.
I's seen a lot o' winter,
An' I
ain' froze yit.

Robbed The Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by Jno. Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin all most yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c; guaranteed at Penny's drug store.

These tablets are guaranteed to cure every case of stomach trouble of this character. For sale by W. N. Craig

The Minnesota State pardoning board has denied the application of Frederick W. Ames, former chief of police of Minneapolis, convicted of "grafting."

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

JOHN S. BAUGHMAN, Danville.

PRESTON, NO. 922.

This premium saddle stallion of the world will make the season of 1904 at the stable of J. C. Bailey, on Old Lancaster Street, in Stanford, Ky.

Preston is a brown horse, 12 years old, 15 1/2 hands high, a perfect model, with great style, action and speed.

Preston was sired by Washington No. 54, he by Cromwell No. 73, 1st dam Belle by Roderick; 2nd dam by a Denmark horse.

Preston has shown against and defeated all the great show horses of Kentucky, such as Kentucky Artist, owned by J. T. Crenshaw, of Lexington, Ky., and Montgomery Chief, owned by Ball Bros. Why you should breed to Preston

1. Because he is the greatest show horse Kentucky ever produced.

2. Because he is siring great show horses, such as Electra that was sold to Senator Vane for $2,000; Rebecca, that sold at New York Exchange to George Watson for $650; Miss Henrietta, owned by Gay Bros., that won more premiums in saddle and combined rings than any three-year-old out in 1903; a yearling colt sold to J. C. Cravins, of Illinois, for $500.

3. Because he is the only saddle stallion that ever sired a team of harness geldings that sold for $5,000

4. Because he won the championship of the Louisville Horse Show in 1903, shown by Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, Ky.

5. Because he has won more money in the show ring than any other saddle stallion in Kentucky.

6. I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite those wishing to breed to a fine saddle stallion to see him before breeding. I will stand him at $10 the season or $15 to insure a living colt.

J. C. BAILEY, Stanford, Ky.
